MAILER #2

IN THE SPIRIT OF FREE COMPETITION,

BUSINESS IS BEING DONE AT

NEW ENGLAND RARE COIN GALLERIES!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the tremendous response you gave our first mailer. We've barely been able to keep up with the orders, and buying coins fast enough to keep our inventory at a respectable level is becoming an even bigger problem.

Despite these mixed blessings, we at New England Rare Coin Galleries pledge to continue to deliver accurately and conservatively graded coins at market-wholesale prices.

We had to return quite a few orders from our first mailer due to coins that were sold out. In some cases we got as many as nine or ten orders for the same item. Therefore, to avoid future disappointment, we advise you to order immediately, and always include alternate choices where possible.

As you can see, we have added a great many new items to this mailer, and have lowered the price on the few items which remain from our last mailer. If you see an item that you feel is priced too cheap, do not hesitate to order it. We can and will deliver correctly graded coins at these prices. By the same token, if you see a coin that seems priced too high, remember that the market for choice condition pieces is stronger than it's ever been, and chances are that any piece you see advertised elsewhere for less is probably not the true grade that it's advertised to be.

Despite the fact that our prices for choice and gem B.U. coins are often higher than some of our competitors, we sold nearly every choice or gem B.U. coin listed; many of them to some of the leading DEALERS in the country. The difference is the quality we deliver, and that is what makes our prices comparable to the market wholesale, in terms of value delivered.

If you do not see everything (or anything) that you are looking for, by all means send us your want list and let us get it for you. Why should you pay someone else more for the same coins? We service your want lists at New England Rare Coin Galleries, we don't ignore them!

Business is being done here at New England Rare Coin Galleries... because we are here to do business. Let us hear from you!

Sincerely,

Jim Halperin
